JAMES L. DOLAN

EXECUTIVE CHAIRMAN, THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN COMPANY

As executive chairman of The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG), James L. Dolan oversees the company's many entities, including its world-famous arena complex, professional sports teams, sports and entertainment networks, and historic showplaces. Mr. Dolan also serves as president and chief executive officer of Cablevision Systems Corporation, one of the nation's leading media and telecommunications companies.

In his role at The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan is responsible for the Company's overall growth strategy and manages all of its operations. He also serves as governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and Rangers.

To ensure the standing of the Company's premier venues, Mr. Dolan has taken on a number of restoration projects throughout his tenure. In Inglewood, California, the legendary Forum arena is currently undergoing a renovation that will create the largest indoor performance venue in the country focused on music and entertainment. This follows the October 2013 completion of a three-year Transformation of the Madison Square Garden Arena designed to significantly enhance the experience of customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and partners. Mr. Dolan was also the catalyst for a restoration of the Company's Beacon Theatre, which was renewed to its former grandeur in early 2009. Among his most significant accomplishments as MSG chairman, Mr. Dolan also spearheaded a multimillion-dollar restoration of Radio City Music Hall in 1999, returning the national landmark and MSG showpiece to its original splendor.

Over the past few years, Mr. Dolan has taken additional steps to expand MSG's entertainment properties. They include the addition of The Chicago Theatre, which was built in 1921 as one of the country's most opulent motion picture houses, and the Forum, which has been a celebrated arena in the Greater Los Angeles area since its opening in 1967.

Mr. Dolan has led MSG's response to local and national tragedies. He played a principal role in organizing several extraordinary benefit concerts, including "12-12-12," which raised more than $50 million for the victims of Hurricane Sandy; "The Concert For New York City," which generated more than $35 million in aid for 9/11 victims and heroes; and "From The Big Apple to The Big Easy," which raised nearly $9 million for Hurricane Katrina relief. Mr. Dolan also supports The Madison Square Garden Company's ongoing commitment to the community, particularly through the Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit charity that works closely with all areas at the company to help children throughout the New York metropolitan area.

In addition to his leadership role at The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan is president and chief executive officer of Cablevision Systems Corporation, which served as MSG's parent company until February 2010, when the sports, media and entertainment business became a standalone, public company. Mr. Dolan oversees Cablevision's comprehensive portfolio of advanced Optimum-branded telecommunications products, including its digital television, digital voice and high-speed Internet services, and Optimum WiFi, the nation's largest regional wireless Internet network.

Also under his purview, and serving the New York tri-state area, are Cablevision's local media properties, which include News 12 Networks and Newsday Media Group, featuring Long Island's leading daily newspaper, Newsday.

Prior to assuming his present posts at Cablevision and The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Dolan was chief executive officer of Rainbow Media Holdings, the former Cablevision programming subsidiary that became a separate, public company named AMC Networks Inc. in June 2011. Mr. Dolan began his career with Cablevision in the 1970s and held a variety of executive positions before overseeing Rainbow Media.

Mr. Dolan serves on the board of directors for The Madison Square Garden Company and AMC Networks, and is a member of Cablevision's board of directors and its executive committee. He is also on the board of The Lustgarten Foundation, an organization he helped found in 1998 which today is the nation's largest private supporter of pancreatic cancer research. In addition, he sits on the boards of C-SPAN and the Breathe Easy Play Hard Foundation, and is a member of the New York University Steinhardt Dean's Council.

HANK RATNER

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, THE MADISON SQUARE GARDEN COMPANY

Hank J. Ratner is president and chief executive officer of The Madison Square Garden Company (MSG), which includes renowned performance venues, entertainment properties, professional sports teams and television networks. Mr. Ratner directs the overall strategy and day-to-day operations of the business. He also serves as alternate governor to the National Basketball Association and the National Hockey League on behalf of the New York Knicks and New York Rangers.

The Company's signature assets consist of some of the nation's most dynamic and powerful sports, media and entertainment brands. This diverse collection of properties includes a portfolio of iconic venues: New York's Madison Square Garden, Radio City Music Hall and Beacon Theatre; the Forum in Inglewood, California; The Chicago Theatre; and the Wang Theatre in Boston. In addition, MSG owns and operates professional sports teams, the New York Knicks, Rangers and Liberty; MSG Entertainment and its entertainment properties, including the Radio City Christmas Spectacular, featuring the legendary Radio City Rockettes; regional sports and entertainment networks, MSG and MSG+; and Fuse, a national music network.

In February of 2010, Mr. Ratner led the spin-off of Madison Square Garden from Cablevision Systems Corporation and, today, The Madison Square Garden Company is a thriving, stand-alone, public company. Recently, Mr. Ratner spearheaded the top-to-bottom Transformation of the iconic Madison Square Garden Arena, which was designed to significantly enhance the experience of customers, athletes, entertainers, suite holders and partners. Completed in October 2013, the historic three-year project has resulted in new seating, improved sightlines, spectacular public concourses, an expanded lineup of exclusive clubs and suites, new food offerings by some of the best chefs in the world, and exhibits that pay homage to the building's storied history. The Transformation also includes a dramatically redesigned Seventh Avenue entrance and two new bridges suspended above the playing surface for a one-of-a-kind viewing experience, as well as the restoration of The Garden's distinctive and celebrated ceiling.

Mr. Ratner served as MSG's vice chairman for seven years before being named president and chief executive officer following MSG's spin-off from Cablevision. Throughout his tenure, Mr. Ratner has been influential in formulating and implementing the strategic direction for MSG's multi-faceted business. For example, he has played a key role in bringing some of the country's landmark venues under MSG management. Over the last six years, these have included The Beacon Theatre, The Chicago Theatre, the Wang Theatre and, most recently, the Forum. In addition, Mr. Ratner is the architect of the company's integrated business approach, designed to capitalize on MSG's unique combination of iconic venues, sports and entertainment content, and programming and distribution networks, by strategically aligning these assets to work together to deliver incomparable opportunities and exceptional experiences for partners, entertainers, customers and fans.

As chairman of The Garden of Dreams Foundation, the non-profit that works closely with The Madison Square Garden Company, Mr. Ratner has been the visionary behind the charity's commitment to "make dreams come true for children facing obstacles." Its extraordinary relationship with the company allows the Foundation to do what no other charity in the world can do – use the magic and power of MSG's assets to create on-going, unforgettable programs that improve the lives of kids and their families. Since its inception in 2006, Garden of Dreams has worked with all areas of MSG – including the Knicks, Rangers, Liberty, MSG Media and MSG Entertainment – to create thousands of unique and unforgettable experiences that have brightened the lives of more than 235,000 children.

Mr. Ratner has also served as vice chairman of Cablevision Systems Corporation since 2003. In this role, he helps to set corporate direction and strategy for the media and telecommunications company whose portfolio of operations includes a full suite of advanced digital television, voice and high-speed Internet services, and valuable local media and programming properties. Prior to serving as MSG and Cablevision vice chairman, Mr. Ratner served as COO and then vice chairman of Rainbow Media Holdings, Cablevision's former programming subsidiary which became AMC Networks, a separate company, after its spin-off in June 2011.

Mr. Ratner joined Cablevision as assistant general counsel in 1987. A year later, he moved to Rainbow Media, rising to the position of Rainbow's chief operating officer in 1998. Mr. Ratner was then promoted to vice chairman of Cablevision before also being named vice chairman of MSG in 2003.

Previously, Mr. Ratner was an associate with the law firm of Sullivan & Cromwell. He received a bachelor's degree and doctorate of law with distinction from Emory University.

GLEN SATHER

PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

With a strong mix of experienced veterans and promising home-grown youth on the roster, Rangers President and General Manager Glen Sather continues to illustrate why he is one of the great architects in the history of hockey management. With 36 years of hockey experience on his Hall of Fame resume, which includes five Stanley Cup Championships, he is the league's longest tenured general manager, serving the past 13 seasons with New York and prior to that, 21 years in Edmonton.

With a developing core of homegrown players, Sather has laid the foundation for long-term success by stockpiling talented prospects, while adding significant pieces via trades and free agency. Since 2005-06, the Blueshirts have totaled 330 wins and a .588 points percentage, ranking fourth in the Eastern Conference. In 2011-12, the Rangers advanced to the Conference Finals after finishing atop the Eastern Conference with a 51-24-7 record. The Blueshirts' 51 wins ranked second in franchise history, while their 109 points tied for second all-time.

The Rangers posted 40+ wins six times in seven seasons from 2005-06 to 2011-12, marking the first time in franchise history the team has accomplished the feat. The Blueshirts are also one of four teams in the NHL, along with Pittsburgh, Detroit and San Jose, to advance to the playoffs in at least seven of the last eight seasons.

Sather became New York's 12th President and 10th General Manager on June 1, 2000. He also served as head coach from January 30, 2003 to February 25, 2004. Sather led the Edmonton Oilers' to five Stanley Cup Championships between 1984 – 1990, overseeing the development of a revolutionary team concept as well as some of the finest individual talents ever to play the game. Sather's achievements were recognized and honored on September 9, 1997 when he became the first member of the Edmonton Oilers organization to be selected to the Hockey Hall of Fame.

During his tenure with the Oilers, the club posted a 791-660-215 record in 1,666 regular season games (.539 winning percentage), capturing three President's Trophies, six division titles and six conference championships. In Stanley Cup playoff action, Sather's teams compiled a 133-82 record in 215 games (.619 winning percentage), leading to the club's five Stanley Cup titles.

Upon his retirement as a player following the 1976-77 season, Sather immediately joined the coaching ranks, guiding the Edmonton Oilers to 12 straight WHA and NHL playoff appearances, four Stanley Cup Championships and five Stanley Cup Finals appearances between 1977 and 1989. Sather added the title of General Manager on June 15, 1979, and was named the team's President prior to the 1982-83 season.

Before embarking on his executive career, Sather put together one of the most impressive coaching records in NHL history. He has served as a Head Coach in 932 NHL regular season games, compiling a record of 497-307-128 (.602 winning percentage), ranking 16th on the NHL's all-time coaching list with 497 victories. In 127 Stanley Cup playoff games, Sather posted a record of 89-37-1, ranking sixth on the all-time list for playoff wins with 89 and first all-time with a .705 playoff winning percentage. He received the Jack Adams Trophy as the NHL's Coach of the Year in 1985-86 and is one of only six coaches to coach in five or more NHL All-Star Games.

Sather's knowledge of the game, tactical negotiating strategies, strong developmental skills and keen ability to get the best out of his players are keys to his managerial success. During his administration in Edmonton, Sather developed a dynasty by nurturing talented draft picks Mark Messier, Kevin Lowe, Jari Kurri, Grant Fuhr, Paul Coffey, Esa Tikkanen and Glenn Anderson, along with the acquisition of a rising star named Wayne Gretzky.

Sather's management experience and success also carries over to the international arena. He served as Team Canada's General Manager and Coach for the 1996 World Cup of Hockey. He also guided Team Canada's 1994 Canada Cup Championship and was the General Manager of the gold medal-winning team in the 1994 World Hockey Championships.

A native of High River, Alberta, Sather enjoyed a successful junior career with the Edmonton Oil Kings. Following the completion of his amateur days, he became property of the Detroit Red Wings but would never wear a Winged Wheel jersey. After a season with the Central League's Memphis Wings, Sather was drafted away from the Red Wings by the Boston Bruins in 1965, and would make his National Hockey League debut with the Bruins in the 1966-67 season. Sather would go on to play 10 seasons in the NHL with the Boston Bruins, Pittsburgh Penguins, New York Rangers, St. Louis Blues, Montreal Canadiens and Minnesota North Stars. KEN GERNANDER

Gernander, 42, previously served as an assistant coach of the Wolf Pack for two seasons after concluding an illustrious 14-year playing career in April of 2005. A member of the Rangers organization since signing as a free agent in 1994, Gernander served as captain of the club's top minor league affiliate in each of his last 10 years on the ice (all eight years in Hartford, plus the final two seasons in Binghamton).

The native of Coleraine, Minnesota accumulated 637 points (300 goals, 337 assists) in 986 games with the Fort Wayne Komets of the International Hockey League (IHL) and the Moncton Hawks, Binghamton Rangers and Hartford Wolf Pack of the American Hockey League (AHL). Gernander retired as the highest-scoring American-born player (293-331-624) in AHL history and ranked eighth all-time in AHL games played (973). He is the Wolf Pack all-time franchise record-holder in games-played (599) and playoff games-played (78). Gernander also ranks second all-time in goals (160), assists (187) and points (347) in Wolf Pack franchise history. In Calder Cup playoff action, he has recorded 27 goals and 29 assists for 56 points, along with 20 penalty minutes in his 123 career post-season games. On April 26, 2005, he established a new AHL record (since surpassed) for most playoff game appearances when he skated in his 121st post-season outing vs. Lowell, surpassing Fred Glover.

A three-time AHL All-Star, Gernander also captained the 1999 PlanetUSA team at the AHL All-Star Classic in Philadelphia. He was twice voted recipient of the Fred T. Hunt Memorial Award for sportsmanship, determination and dedication to hockey in 1996 and 2004. As a member of the Wolf Pack, he was voted team MVP in 1998 and recipient of the "Bob Girouard Memorial Character" award in 2002, best defensive forward in 2002 and an American Specialty/AHL Man of the Year nominee in 2004.

A four-year letterman at the University of Minnesota, Gernander was originally drafted by Winnipeg with the 96th overall choice in the 1987 NHL Entry Draft. For his NHL career, he skated in 12 contests, all with the Rangers, registering two goals and three assists for five points, along with 15 penalty minutes. In addition, Gernander appeared in 15 Stanley Cup playoff games for New York.

He and his wife, Kerby, have one son, Micah, and two daughters, McKenna and Miranda.

Assistant General Manager and Assistant Coach | Pat Boller enters his seventh season behind the Wolf Pack bench as an assistant coach. In his role, Boller serves the team as a bench coach and video analyst. Additionally, he assists General Manager, Jim Schoenfeld, with all the team's administrative duties.

Boller, 38, joined Hartford after serving nine years in the Rangers organization as a Coaches Assistant and Director of Operations, Madison Square Garden Training Center. In this capacity, he worked closely with Video Analyst Jerry Dineen to prepare video, as well as assisting with pre-scouting and tracking statistics. Additionally, Boller helped coordinate team travel and scheduling.

Boller was also instrumental in organizing and assisting with summer prospect and development camps, working closely with Rangers' prospects on and off the ice. The summer months also involved setting up player rehab and off-season programs in preparation for the coming season.

A former college hockey player and assistant captain at SUNY Potsdam, Boller was a member of the coaching staff at Manhattanville College in Purchase, New York. During his tenure, Manhattanville won the ECAC Championship three-straight seasons (2005, 2006 and 2007). He also helped lead Manhattanville to an appearance in the Division III Final Eight in 2005 and 2006, and a Final Four appearance in 2007. The Queens, New York native made it to the international stage in 2006 as Video Coach for USA Hockey at the World Junior Championship in Vancouver, British Columbia, serving under Head Coach Walt Kyle. He also went on to coach at the USA Select 15 Festival in 2006 and 2007.

JEFF BEUKEBOOM

Assistant Coach | Jeff Beukeboom begins his second season with the Wolf Pack coaching staff after being named Assistant Coach on July 6, 2012. He arrived in Hartford after spending the previous three seasons as an assistant coach with the Sudbury Wolves of the Ontario Hockey League (OHL). In 2011-12, his final season with the Wolves, he helped guide Sudbury to a 36-26-4-2 record for 78 points, a 16-point improvement over their 2010-11 record.

Prior to joining Sudbury, Beukeboom served as an assistant coach with the Barrie Colts (OHL) for the 2008-09 season. He began his coaching career in 2003-04 as an assistant coach for the Toronto Roadrunners (AHL). In 2005, Beukeboom became President and part-owner of the Lindsay Muskies of the Ontario Provincial Junior "A" Hockey League (OJHL).

Beukeboom, 47, is a four-time Stanley Cup Champion, including as a member of the Rangers' 1994 Championship team. The defenseman skated in 804 career regular season games in 13 NHL seasons with the Rangers and Edmonton Oilers, registering 30 goals and 129 assists for 159 points, along with 1,890 penalty minutes and a plus-114 rating.

The Ajax, Ontario native was originally selected by Edmonton as a first round choice, 19th overall, in the 1983 NHL Entry Draft. He began his career with Edmonton in 1986-87, where he captured the Stanley Cup in three of his first four seasons. In 1987-88, he established career-highs in assists (20), points (25), plus/minus rating (plus-27), and penalty minutes (201). SAM ROSEN

TV PLAY-BY-PLAY | Sam Rosen has been calling play-by-play for the New York Rangers on MSG since 1984 and the words he uttered on June 14, 1994 – "This one will last a lifetime!" – will be celebrated forever by the nearly two million Rangers fans that tuned in that evening to watch the Rangers clinch the Stanley Cup for the first time in 54 years.

One of the most knowledgeable and thorough play-by-play personalities in sports, Rosen has called games alongside some of hockey's greatest minds, including Hall-of-Famer Phil Esposito, former Rangers goaltender John Davidson and current partner Joe Micheletti. His broadcasting expertise extends beyond hockey as he continues to call weekly football games for the NFL on FOX. Rosen has won two New York Emmy Awards for MSG's Rangers coverage and has been nominated eight times for achievement in play-by-play.

JOE MICHELETTI

TV ANALYST | Joe Micheletti was named MSG's New York Rangers television analyst in September 2006 after spending eight years serving in the same capacity for the New York Islanders on MSG+. Micheletti is also an analyst for NBC's coverage of the NHL.

Micheletti broke into broadcasting in 1985 as part of the St. Louis Blues radio team after an eight year professional hockey career. He held the position for two years before joining the Blues in 1987 as an assistant coach. After spending three years behind the bench, Micheletti returned to broadcasting in 1991 as the color analyst for the Minnesota North Stars. He then returned to St. Louis, this time as the television analyst for the Blues. Micheletti was nominated for his first New York Emmy in 2008.

The World's Most Famous Arena

The Rangers images alone are endless, burning, unforgettable... Pete Stemkowski in triple OT... Ed-die, Ed-die... Mark Messier, Cup in hand, wiping out 53 years of frustration... The Great One's farewell...

Those images just scratch the surface of this building, which also featured Hope and Crosby on Opening Night... Willis Reed out of the tunnel for Game Seven... 19 straight Knicks points against Milwaukee... Sinatra in The Main Event... Ali and Frazier in The Fight... The Dunk... Patrick Ewing slam-dunking the Knicks into the Finals... LJ's four-pointer... The Stones and The Dead and The King and The Pope and Streisand and Carter and Clinton and Bush...

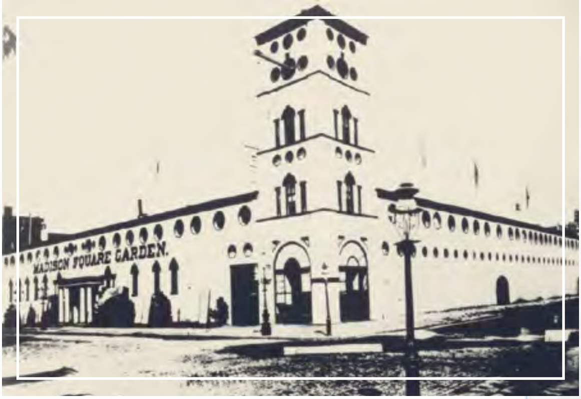
It could all only happen in one place... Not a mere building but a state of mind... The greatest of the great in sports, arts and entertainment, summed up in three words... Madison Square Garden... The World's Most Famous Arena...

BEGINNINGS

The current Garden - located between 31st and 33rd Streets and Seventh and Eighth Avenues on Manhattan's West Side - is the fourth building (third site) to be named Madison Square Garden.

Garden I was located at Madison Square: 26th Street and Madison Avenue. It was originally opened in 1874 (at a cost of $35,000) by the legendary P.T. Barnum as "Barnum's Monster Classical and Geological Hippodrome." However, it was soon renamed "Gilmore's Garden" when the lease was auctioned off to bandmaster Patrick S. Gilmore (the term "Garden" was used often during this period to denote a place of public gathering and entertainment).

The building, which had 28-foot walls without a roof, hosted a varied schedule of social and fraternal meetings, flower shows and commercial exhibitions. When Gilmore's lease expired in 1878, it was picked up briefly by W. M. Tileson. The following year, William Vanderbilt of the New York Central Railroad assumed control of the facility and officially renamed it "Madison Square Garden" on May 31, 1879. Featuring a sports and entertainment program that stressed such events as boxing and the National Horse Show, Garden I stood until its demolition in 1889.



Garden II was constructed on the site of Garden I, opening on Jun. 16, 1890 at a cost of $1.5 million. It contained an 8,000-seat main arena, 1,500-seat concert hall, 1,200-seat theatre and the world's largest indoor swimming pool. The Spanish Renaissance-style structure was topped by its most famous feature: a 32-story tower and roof garden atop which stood Augustus Saint-Gauden's gold statue of Diana, Goddess of the Hunt.

Stanford White, the renowned architect who designed Garden II, also figured in its most famous - and infamous - event. On the night of Jun. 25, 1906, White was gunned down in the Garden's rooftop garden by Pittsburgh millionaire Harry Thaw, allegedly in revenge for White's long-standing affair with Thaw's wife, showgirl Evelyn Nesbit. The White-Thaw-Nesbit love triangle was ultimately immortalized in the 1955 film The Girl in the Red Velvet Swing - starring Ray Milland as White and Joan Collins as Nesbit - and in the recent best-seller American Eve by Paula Uruburu (Riverhead Books, 2008). Nesbit died in obscurity in California at age 81 in 1967.

Garden II hosted a sporting card heavy with boxing, wrestling, six-day bicycle races and horse shows, along with national events such as the 1924 Democratic National Convention, a marathon that lasted through 16 days and 103 ballots. Movie buffs will recall that in Orson Welles' 1941 classic Citizen Kane, Charles Foster Kane's acceptance of the 1916 New York gubernatorial nomination takes place at Garden II (although, obviously, it wasn't actually filmed there).

Garden II closed with a boxing card on May 5, 1925, followed by a mournful eulogy by ring announcer Joe Humphreys: "Farewell to thee, o temple of fistiana. Farewell to thee, o sweet Miss Diana...". The New York Life Insurance Building (51 Madison Avenue) occupies the former site of Gardens I and II, while Diana found a new home at the Philadelphia Museum of Art.

Garden III - the "Old Garden" - was built in just 249 days at 49th Street and Eighth Avenue under the watchful eyes of promoter Tex Rickard and architect Thomas Lamb. The fabled 18,000-seat arena, built at a cost of $5.6 million, opened with a six-day bicycle race on Nov. 24, 1925, and for 43 years was America's premier sports and entertainment showplace. Ironically, Rickard did not live to see the blossoming of Garden III, suffering a fatal appendicitis attack on Jan. 6, 1929.

Anyone who ever set foot in the Old Garden remembers its unforgettable atmosphere...the sky-high balcony...the haze from decades of cigarette smoke...the main lobby, a schmoozer's paradise... the marquee...G.O. Cards...the organ (played first by Gladys Goodding, later by Virginia Thomas)...the unmistakable voice of John Condon...

the Nedick's and Adam Hats stores that flanked the main entrance... Sports - especially hockey, basketball, boxing and track - would be the lifeblood of the Old Garden. But it also hosted entertainment extravaganzas ranging from the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus and the Gene Autry Rodeo to star-studded spectacles like Mike Todd's 1957 anniversary party for his film Around the World in 80 Days and President John F. Kennedy's May 19, 1962 birthday party which featured Marilyn Monroe's breathless version of "Happy Birthday." On the screen, the Garden provided the inspiration, and title, for the 1932 Paramount epic Madison Square Garden, starring Jack Oakie and ZaSu Pitts, as well as the on-location backdrop for the harrowing final reel of John Frankenheimer's 1962 classic The Manchurian Candidate.

The first NHL team to play at Garden III was the New York Americans, who rented the building for the 1925-26 season. The Rangers played their first regular-season NHL game there on Nov. 16, 1926, beating the Montreal Maroons 1-0. In the 42 years the Rangers played on 49th Street, they would win three Stanley Cup championships (1928, 1933 and 1940) and develop a host of Hall of Famers, including Bill Cook, Frank Boucher, Ching Johnson, Babe Pratt, Neil Colville, Chuck Rayner, Andy Bathgate, Harry Howell, Gump Worsley, Rod Gilbert, Jean Ratelle and Eddie Giacomin.

The Rangers played their final game at the Old Garden on the afternoon of Feb. 11, 1968; a 3-3 tie with Detroit. The last event ever was the Westminster Dog Show, over Feb. 12-13, 1968. After the Old Garden was demolished, the site was used for years as a Kinney parking lot. The Worldwide Plaza office/apartment complex, which opened in 1989, now occupies the site.

Garden IV On Nov. 3, 1960, Garden president Irving Mitchell Felt announced plans for a new Madison Square Garden - Garden IV - to eventually be built at 33rd Street between Seventh and Eighth Avenues, atop Pennsylvania Station.

Prospective sites for a New Garden had been discussed throughout the mid- and late-'50s, especially the area at Columbus Circle which would eventually house the New York Coliseum and, ultimately, the Time Warner Center.

Then the Garden Corporation obtained the coveted "air rights" above Penn Station from the Pennsylvania Railroad in 1961. The Railroad had entertained the idea of selling Penn Station's air rights as far back as 1951, when faced with a $72 million deficit. In 1955, Railroad president James Symes and famed real estate developer William Zeckendorf signed an agreement to option the Station's air rights for an industrial-commercial "Palace of Progress", with a new, renovated Penn Station below street level. When the project fell through, the Railroad sold the air rights to the Garden Corporation. Above-ground demolition of Penn Station began on Oct. 28, 1963, with new concrete poured starting on May 1, 1964.

Garden IV opened as a glittering sports and entertainment showplace, with its distinctive circular, cable-suspended roof above the 19,000-seat arena, its 5,000-seat Felt Forum, 48-lane Bowling Center, 500-seat cinema, Hall of Fame Club, National Art Museum of Sport, 50,000-square foot Exposition Rotunda and 29-story office building (Two Penn Plaza) attached by a pedestrian mall.

The first element of the New Garden complex to open its doors was the Bowling Center, on Oct. 30, 1967. On Nov. 26, 1967, the Felt Forum opened with a performance of the Welsh and Scots Guards.

The "New Garden" itself officially opened on Feb. 11, 1968, when Bob Hope and Bing Crosby hosted "The Night of the Century," a star-studded salute to the USO. One week later – Feb. 18, 1968 – the Rangers played their first game in their new home, a 3-1 victory over a Philadelphia Flyers team that had entered the NHL that season in what signaled the end of the NHL's Original Six era.

ODDS 'N ENDS

- Cost for design and construction of the present Garden was $43 million.
- Garden IV was built by Turner Construction and the Del E. Webb Corporation. The building was designed by Charles Luckman, the fabled entrepreneur and architect who died in 1999. Luckman also designed the Great Western Forum, the Los Angeles Convention Center, CBS Television City, the Prudential Center in Boston and the Johnson Space Center in Houston.
- The Garden arena is 425 feet in diameter, 13 stories high, and occupies 820,000-square feet of real estate.
- Each of the four entrance/exit towers is over 100 feet high and contains at least 10 escalators.
- Seating capacity for Rangers hockey is 18,200.

THROUGH THE YEARS

1972: Garden IV becomes the first New York sports venue to install luxury boxes, formally named "Hall of Fame Lounges." The original deck of 11 luxury suites - each measuring 23x15 feet and accommodating 10 people - is installed above the mezzanine level on the 33rd Street side. Due to the ongoing luxury suite construction, basketball broadcast locations are moved to courtside and directly above center-court exit tunnels. Previously, they had been located in a two-level booth suspended from the roof.

1977: Original end zone scoreboards replaced by new 36-foot long scoreboards in each end zone, and smaller auxiliary boards on the facing of the mezzanine at center court. New boards feature tenth-of-a-second timing capabilities and black-and-white animated matrix boards.

1989-91: Over a three-year span, the Garden complex undergoes its most extensive renovation to date, a multi-million dollar effort in which:

- Each of the original red, orange, yellow, green and blue seats is removed and replaced. Primary color scheme is now purple and teal.
- Existing scoreboards are replaced by a computerized, state-of-the-art system that features the eight-sided Center Display Board (37 feet wide at the top, 34 feet wide at the bottom), complete with "GardenVision" color replay screens and multi-colored end zone boards, by White Way Company of Chicago. It is the first eight-sided scoreboard in a major U.S. arena. Original Garden sound system is also completely overhauled, including the replacement of the original center-hung "sound cluster" with four separate speaker clusters affixed to the arena ceiling.

- Original Hall of Fame Lounges (luxury boxes) are removed and replaced by a completely new deck of 89 Club Suites that encircles the entire arena, including a double-deck of suites on the 7th Avenue end.
- The Paramount, a state-of-the-art, 5,600-seat theatre, is constructed on the former site of the Felt Forum, now named the Theater at Madison Square Garden. Fronting the main entrance is the Garden Walk of Fame, which opens in 1992.
- Two dining facilities - The Club Restaurant and the Play-By-Play sports bar and restaurant - are constructed on the former site of the Bowling Center and the Hall of Fame Club.
- Garden exterior renovated, including the installations of animated color matrix boards above the Seventh Avenue entrance to Penn Station and the Eighth Avenue facade.
- Upgrades and improvements in other areas of the Garden, including concession stands (and all-new Food Courts), locker rooms, press room, box office, Garden Team Store and broadcast facilities.

1995: Knicks and Rangers locker room areas are further renovated and expanded, including increased player/locker space, expanded training and X-ray facilities and individual offices for all coaches.

2000: Ongoing improvement program in the new century features “GardenVision” upgraded to HD format, making it the first indoor arena to feature HD playback.

2007: LED and Matrix center scoreboard and side out-of-town boards installed.

“New York is not a city. It is a set of cities, dozens of them, divided by caste, class, taste and blood. Most of us are welcome in a few of these cities, barred from others by tradition, or fear, or indifference, or income. But all of us hold safe conduct passes to The Garden. It is a center of experience for the same reason New York is: nothing is out of place there. Walk through a neighborhood of New York and you will find people who would never dream of setting foot in Carnegie Hall, the Empire State Building, the Fillmore East, Sunnyside Gardens, The Four Seasons, or the Bronx Zoo. Madison Square Garden is alien to none of us.” - Jeff Greenfield, 1974

It might seem hard to believe, but the New York Rangers were once an NHL expansion team.

The year was 1926, and hockey was already a popular sport at Madison Square Garden – only the team of choice was not yet the Blueshirts. Back then, another NHL squad, the old New York Americans, were drawing big crowds in their first season at The Garden.

The Americans, who wore stars-and-stripes jerseys patterned after the American flag, proved that MSG was a perfect venue for hockey. Garden President G.I. "Tex" Rickard came to realize that the time was ripe for a second New York hockey team – one owned and operated by The Garden itself. Working with the league, Rickard managed to secure a team for the 1926-27 season.

Rickard knew he had to put a strong team on the ice to compete with the Americans and win over the loyalty of New Yorkers just discovering hockey. To assemble this team, he convinced one of the brightest minds in hockey, Conn Smythe, to leave his post at the University of Toronto. Rickard encouraged

Smythe to travel throughout North America in search of the most talented "undiscovered" players he could find.

Smythe ended up laying the groundwork for a team that was instantly great. In the course of one summer, he found future Hall of Famers Frank Boucher and Bill Cook; Hall of Fame defenseman Ivan 'Ching' Johnson; and second line winger Murray Murdoch, who would become hockey's first 'iron man,' by playing 508 consecutive games.

As Smythe was out signing players, sportswriters back home began referring to the team as 'Tex's Rangers'. The name stuck, and Rickard formally adopted it – stripping the word "Rangers" diagonally across the front of a blue jersey to make his team stand out from the Americans, whose name was displayed horizontally on the players' jerseys.

Before the start of the 1926-27 season, Smythe left the team he had built as a result of disagreements with Garden management. Rickard looked west to British Columbia, where he found one of hockey's great pioneers in Lester Patrick. Although Smythe had put the roster together, it was Patrick who would mold it into a championship team.

Knowing they had to break out of the Americans' shadow, the Rangers wasted no time in winning. They finished their first season with the best record in the NHL and the league's top scorer in Bill Cook. The following year, they went a step further, winning the first of the franchise's four Stanley Cup championships. During Game 2 of the 1928 Cup Finals vs. the Montreal Maroons, the 44-year old Patrick made headlines and hockey history by substituting himself for injured goaltender Lorne Chabot and holding his own in net for the win .

Since the Rangers pulled off their remarkable feat in 1928, no other NHL team has ever won the Cup in its first two years of existence. The Rangers quickly won over New Yorkers with a reputation for hard, clean play. Combined with Patrick's innovative tactics, the Rangers became known as 'the classiest team in hockey,' going to the finals four times in their first six years.

Boucher epitomized the club's style and grace, winning the Lady Byng Trophy so frequently that the league allowed him to keep the original silverware and struck a new award. Bill Cook, who still holds the Rangers career record of 11 hat tricks, brought the bulk of the offense -- winning a second scoring title in 1932-33, and scoring an overtime goal in Game 4 of the 1933 Cup Finals to give the Rangers a 1-0 win over Toronto and their second league title.

By the late 1930s, New York had a new group of stars. The team acquired goalie Davey Kerr from the Maroons in 1934 and defenseman Art Coulter from Chicago in 1936, and this duo formed the backbone of the next great Rangers team. Three seasons later, in 1939, Boucher succeeded Patrick as coach, and needed almost no time at all to bring the Cup back to New York. Led by Hall of Famers Neil Colville and Bryan Hextall, the Rangers won their third Stanley Cup title in 1940. Two years later, they were regular-season champions, thanks largely to the trio of Phil Watson, Lynn Patrick (Lester's son) and Hextall, who dominated league scoring. Unfortunately, World War II managed to break up this collection of Ranger All-Stars over the next few seasons.

In their first 16 seasons, the Rangers missed the playoffs only once, and only twice did they fall lower than third place. By the early 1940s, the Blueshirts' popularity contributed to the decline of the Americans, who left The Garden for Brooklyn before eventually folding in 1942. During that 16-year span in which they were one of two New York hockey teams, the Rangers won three regular-season championships, finished second five times and third on six other occasions. Rangers' nights at The Garden became popular, attracting a 'dinner-jacket' crowd that often included sports figures, Broadway entertainers, New York's society elite and City Hall politicians.

THE ORIGINAL SIX ERA

In 1942, the Rangers became New York's only hockey team – a distinction they would hold for the next 30 years. The folding of the Americans had left just six NHL teams to compete for the Stanley Cup from the 1942-43 season all the way through the 1966-67 season – the final year before the modern NHL expansion began. The six teams that played during these golden years forever be known as the Original Six, even though several of them, including the Rangers, were not part of the NHL when the league began operating in 1917.

Unfortunately, the Original Six era wasn't good to New York. Throughout the 1940s, the club struggled. Between 1943 and 1955, the Rangers made the playoffs only twice, although the second trip in 1950 took the Blueshirts all the way to the Stanley Cup Finals, where they pushed Detroit to the second overtime of Game 7 despite having had to play home games in Toronto because the circus was at MSG. That 1950 team was the ultimate Cinderella squad. Under .500 in the regular season, the Rangers stunned Montreal in the opening round before giving the regular-season champion Red Wings a major scare by taking a 3-2 lead after five games.

While the 1940s and most of the 1950s were lean years for the organization, each Rangers team featured outstanding individual talents: Buddy O'Connor became the first Ranger to win the Hart Trophy as NHL MVP in 1947-48, and goalie Chuck Rayner won it again in 1949-50 en route to his dramatic effort in the 1950 Cup Finals.

A fertile farm system and deft trades would eventually improve the team's fortunes. Hall of Famers Andy Bathgate, Dean Prentice, Harry Howell, Bill Gadsby and Gump Worsley boosted the team into the playoffs by 1956. Bathgate became the club's captain and all-time leading scorer, winning the Hart Trophy for the 1958-59 season. Howell was recognized as one of hockey's best defensemen and received the Norris Trophy in 1966-67.

A RETURN TO PROMINENCE

With Bathgate and Howell still in their prime, a Rangers Renaissance took hold in the 1960s under the leadership of Coach and General Manager Emile Francis. Beginning in the last Original Six season of 1966-67, the club made the playoffs nine consecutive seasons and was the only NHL team of the period to do so. Led by Rod Gilbert, who eclipsed Bathgate's club scoring records, and linemates Jean Ratelle and Vic Hadfield, the Rangers became a perennial NHL powerhouse for the first time since World War II had begun. It also didn't hurt to have Hall of Fame goaltender Ed Giacomin and defenseman Brad Park in the ranks. When the GAG (Goal-a-Game) line of Ratelle, Gilbert and Hadfield didn't deliver, Giacomin or Park did.

The apex of that dominating stretch came in 1971-72, when the Rangers finished 48-17-13 and eventually lost a tough six-game Stanley Cup Finals to Bobby Orr and the Boston Bruins. During that year, Hadfield became the first Rangers player to score 50 goals in a season. At the end of the season, the Rangers learned they would not be New York's only hockey team any longer, as the NHL announced the formation of the Islanders, who would quickly emerge as the Blueshirts' most bitter local rival.

Following a two-year absence from post-season play in the mid-1970s, another Cup Finals team emerged in short order. After the hiring of Fred Shero as head coach and general manager in 1978, the Rangers quickly signed Swedish superstars Ulf Nilsson and Anders Hedberg, who had dominated the old WHA. Hedberg and Nilsson were joined by future Hall of Famer Phil Esposito and a cast of young, hungry up-and-comers that included Ron Greschner, Dave and Don Maloney, Don Murdoch, Ron Duguay and Mike McEwen. These players rode a tremendous goaltending performance from veteran NHLer John Davidson all the way to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1979, defeating a heavily-favored Islanders team in the semifinals before bowing to the Montreal Canadiens in a five-game final.

The trip to the 1979 Finals was the second of nine straight Rangers playoff appearances stretching from 1978 to 1987. During this time, the team added many colorful characters and fan favorites, including defensemen Barry Beck and Reijo Ruotsalainen and forwards Mike Rogers, Mark Pavelich, Pierre Larouche and Jan Erixon. Toward the end of this era, the Blueshirts also made a fateful draft pick, selecting defenseman Brian Leetch No. 9 overall in 1986.

It was not, however, until 1989 that the Rangers truly took their first step down the road to a long-awaited Stanley Cup championship in 1994. The Rangers' biggest moves came in 1991, when they signed free-agent forward Adam Graves and then acquired future Hall of Famer Mark Messier from Edmonton. Messier proved his worth immediately, leading the club to the top of the league and winning the Hart Trophy for 1991-92. The Rangers' season ended abruptly when they lost a disappointing playoff series to Pittsburgh.

Two years later, after again finishing at the top of the NHL during the 1993-94 regular season, the Rangers came from behind to win the Eastern Conference championship on Mark Messier's third-period hat trick in Game 6 and Stephane Matteau's double-overtime goal in Game 7 against the New Jersey Devils. They then defeated the Vancouver Canucks in another seven-game thriller. Leetch set the pace with the first goal in Game 7, and Messier scored what would stand up as the Cup-winner.

CHAMPIONS

The Rangers' fourth Cup and the numerous franchise records set that season continued a long, distinguished history marked by outstanding team and individual performances. The emergence of superstars Leetch, goaltender Mike Richter and Graves, who broke Hadfield's team record with 52 goals in 1993-94, provided the organization with the on-ice skill and off-ice leadership crucial to a Stanley Cup contender.

Just two years after winning the Cup, the Rangers shook up the NHL again in 1996 by signing the game's all-time greatest player to a free-agent contract. Wayne Gretzky would play a big part in the team's run to the 1997 Conference Finals in the first of his three seasons with the Blueshirts. It was as a Ranger that the legendary center ended his NHL career on April 18, 1999. During the post-game ceremony, the NHL announced that Gretzky's No. 99 would never be worn by another player.

Between 1998 and 2004, the Rangers struggled to make the playoffs, coming up short in each season. Nevertheless, these years brought many highlights as Leetch and Richter shattered numerous team records.

This period also saw the premature retirement of Richter, the team's all-time wins leader, who was forced to hang up his skates due to injuries. For 14 seasons, he had provided Rangers fans with some of the team's most historic moments, including his performance in the 1994 Stanley Cup run. Richter's accomplishments were celebrated by the team when his No. 35 was raised to the rafters of Madison Square Garden on February 4, 2004, becoming just the third player after Gilbert and Giacomin to have such an honor bestowed on him.

The 2003-04 season featured another great moment as Mark Messier, in his second stint with the team, passed Gordie Howe as the NHL's highest-scoring player behind Wayne Grezky. It was one of the final great accomplishments of Messier's career, because following the lockout season of 2004-05, the man known as "The Captain" announced his retirement. Messier had played 10 of his 25 NHL seasons in New York, and was recognized as the difference-maker on the 1994 Cup team. On Jan. 12, 2006, the Rangers honored Messier's legacy by retiring his No. 11 in a special on-ice ceremony prior to the Rangers – Edmonton Oilers game.

Two years after Messier's number went to the MSG rafters, Leetch's No. 2 found its way there, too. Perhaps the greatest defenseman in Rangers history, Leetch re-wrote every scoring record by a blueliner in his sparkling 17-year career in New York, netting 240 goals, 741 assists and 981 points. During his Rangers tenure, Leetch became the only NHL player other than Orr to win the Calder Trophy as Rookie of the Year, the Conn Smythe Trophy as playoff MVP, and the Norris Trophy as the league's top defenseman (twice).

In 2008-09, Adam Graves was the fourth and final member of the 1994 Championship team to have his number raised to The Garden rafters. Graves spent 10 years with the Rangers, setting the franchise's single season record for goals in the 1993-94 season, tallying 52 goals to break Vic Hadfield's 22-year old mark of 50. The two-time Rangers' MVP (1992-93, 1993-94) will always be best known for his achievements and contributions to the Rangers magical 1994 Stanley Cup team, helping break a 54-year old championship drought. On February 3, 2009, Graves joined his former teammates Mike Richter, Mark Messier and Brian Leetch, as well as former greats Rod Gilbert and Eddie Giacomin, as his #9 was retired to The Garden rafters.

A BRIGHT FUTURE

After making the playoffs in seven of the last eight seasons, the Rangers are building towards taking the next step with a strong core of homegrown players that will lead the team for years to come. That core will be guided by Alain Vigneault, who joined the organization in June 2013 as the 35th head coach in franchise history. Vigneault brings an offensive, up-tempo style of hockey, featuring a talented mix of forwards and defensemen.

Both new and old are expected to blend seamlessly under a new coach, allowing homegrown talents Ryan Callahan, Derek Stepan, and Carl Hagelin to contribute offensively alongside veterans Rick Nash and Brad Richards. Defense will be anchored by young veterans Dan Girardi and Marc Staal, as well as the continued development of rising stars, Ryan McDonagh and Michael Del Zotto. Stability in net will be provided by seven-time team MVP, Henrik Lundqvist, and veteran backup, Martin Biron.

The future also promises to be very bright on Broadway. Blue-chippers Chris Kreider, J.T. Miller, Dylan McIlrath, and Jesper Fast draw closer to becoming regular members of the team. Rangers President and General Manager Glen Sather has bolstered the franchise’s system by signing undrafted free agents from both the college and European ranks, such as Slovakian offensive star Marek Hrivik. In addition, the Rangers’ American Hockey League (AHL) affiliate, the Hartford Wolf Pack, has been instrumental in preparing young players for the next level, and that franchise’s success has been confirmed by 14 trips to the AHL playoffs in the last 16 seasons.

ROD GILBERT | 1960-1977

A Rangers legend, Gilbert spent 15 full seasons with New York, skating in 1,065 career matches and tallying 406 goals and 615 assists and 1,021 points. His 406 points and 1,021 career points remain franchise records to this day, while his 615 assists are second only to Brian Leetch's 741. He also ranks third all-time with 1,065 games played. At the time of his retirement, his 1,021 points ranked second among right wingers in NHL history behind Gordie Howe. Having played in eight NHL All-Star games (1964, 1965, 1967, 1969, 1970, 1972, 1975, 1977), his finest season came in 1971-72 when he registered 43 goals and 54 assists for 97 points and was named to the First NHL All-Star Team. That season, he combined with Jean Ratelle and Vic Hadfield to form the renowned G-A-G Line (Goal-A-Game). The three finished 3-4-5 in the NHL scoring race that season and led the Rangers to a berth in the Stanley Cup Finals. He was also a Second All-Star Team selection in 1967-68. In 1976, Gilbert won the Bill Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to hockey. Then, in 1982, he joined the immortals of the game upon his induction into the Hockey Hall of Fame. Later, he would be inducted into the Madison Square Garden Hall of Fame in 1984 and capture the 1991 Lester Patrick Award for contributions to hockey in the United States.

Ed Giacomin became the second player in team history to have his number retired when the Rangers honored his No. 1 on March 15, 1989.

Always a fan favorite in New York, Giacomin spent over 10 seasons with the Rangers, appearing in 539 matches and posting a 267-174-89 mark, along with a 2.73 goals against average and 49 shutouts. On the Rangers all-time goaltending list, he ranked first overall in career wins (267) and shutouts (49), and second in appearances (539) at the time of his departure in 1975. The legendary goalie also ranked at or near the top of several single season Ranger records, ranking first in wins for a season (37, 1968-69), tied for first in appearances for a season (70, 1968-69 and 1969-70) and tied for fourth in shutouts for a season (9, 1966-67) at the time. Additionally, he is one of only two Ranger goalies in franchise history to reach the 30-win benchmark five times (1966-67, 1967-68, 1968-69, 1969-70, 1973-74). Giacomin played in six NHL All-Star Games (1967, 1968, 1969, 1970, 1971, 1973), including five straight appearances from 1967 to 1971. The netminder was selected as a First Team All-Star two times (1967, 1971), and was honored as a Second Team All-Star three times (1968, 1969, 1970). In 1971, he was awarded the Vezina Trophy as the NHL's top goaltender, sharing the honor with Gilles Villemure. In addition to his puckstopping ability, Giacomin made Rangers history on March 19, 1972 when he became the first Blueshirt goalie to register a multiple-point game with two assists vs. Toronto at Madison Square Garden. He was inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1987.

1989-2003 | MIKE RICHTER

Drafted by the Rangers on June 15, 1985 as their second round selection, 28th overall, Richter spent his entire NHL career with the Blueshirts, fashioning a place in history as the finest goaltender the franchise has ever known. In 666 career appearances, he posted a record of 301-258-73, along with a 2.89 goals against average and a .904 save percentage. His 301 career victories and 666 appearances are team records, while his 24 shutouts tied for fourth. A three-time NHL All-Star (1992, 1994, 2000), Richter was named the Most Valuable Player at the 1994 contest at MSG. Later that season, he would help provide Rangers fans with their greatest triumph, backstopping the club to the 1994 Stanley Cup championship. During the championship run, he would establish franchise records for most playoff wins in one season (16) and most miTnutes played in one post-season (1,477). He also tied a team record with four playoff shutouts during that magical spring. The brilliance of Mike Richter was not confined to the NHL, as he stepped onto the national stage with Team USA. A three-time United States Olympian (1988, 1998, 2002), Richter helped Team USA capture a silver medal at the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City, Utah. In addition, Messier places seventh all-time in goals with 694, third in assists with 1,193 and second in games played with 1,756. The 16-time NHL All-Star joined the Rangers on October 4, 1991, and in his first season with the club, guided the team to the President's Trophy. He led the team in scoring that season with 107 points and captured his second Hart Trophy. He also set a Rangers record for most assists by a center, with 72, while becoming just the fifth player in franchise history to reach the 100-point plateau. In 1993-94, Messier led the Rangers to the team's second President's Trophy in three seasons and carried the Rangers to its first Stanley Cup Championship in 54 years. In 2001, the Professional Hockey Writer`s Association honored Graves with the Bill Masterton Trophy. In this multi-faceted capacity, Graves is a key element in the development of the team's prospects while continuing to develop and execute the organization's many community outreach initiatives.

Andy Bathgate joined the team's all-time legends when his No. 9 was raised to the rafters of Madison Square Garden on February 22, 2009.

Hall of Famer Andy Bathgate did it all for the Rangers in a remarkable 12-year span that saw him captain the team, win the NHL's Hart Trophy as league MVP, play in eight NHL All-Star Games and tie for the league scoring lead. In 1,069 career games, he recorded 349 goals and 624 assists for 973 points in 17 NHL seasons. Bathgate joined the Rangers organization as a 17-year-old in 1949, and got his first call-up to the Blueshirts early in the 1952-53 season. The four-time Rangers' MVP ('57, '58, '59, '62) led the team in scoring eight times (1955-56, 1956-57, 1957-58, 1958-59, 1959-60, 1960-61, 1961-62, 1962-63). His finest season came in 1958-59, when he became the first Rangers player to net 40 goals in a single season and was awarded the Hart Trophy as the league's MVP. A two-time NHL First Team All-Star ('59, '62) and two-time NHL Second Team All-Star ('58, '63), Bathgate tied for the NHL scoring title during the 1961-62 season, only to lose the Art Ross Trophy to Bobby Hull because he had fewer goals. Named team captain in 1961, Bathgate helped the Rangers snap a four-year playoff drought that season. He remained Captain right up until he left the Rangers in February 22, 1964, as the owner of every major team scoring record. His record-setting stretch of goals in 10-straight games (11 goals) during the 1962-63 season still stands today, as Bathgate`s legacy as one of the greatest Blueshirts of all time lives on.

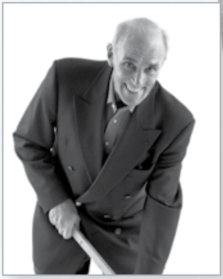
Harry Howell became the second defenseman in Rangers history to have his number retired when his No. 3 was honored on February 22, 2009, at Madison Square Garden.

The benchmark for consistency and longevity, Harry Howell's NHL career spanned 21 seasons, including an amazing 17 consecutive seasons in a Rangers uniform. Howell skated in 1,411 career games, registering 94 goals and 324 assists for 418 points. His franchise record of 1,160 regular season games as a Ranger might never be broken. Inducted into the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1979, Howell joined the team as a 19-year-old on October 18, 1952, recording a goal in his first NHL game. Over the next 17 years, he became a fixture on defense for the Blueshirts, missing only 40 out of 1,200 regular-season games. Having played in six NHL All-Star Games ('54, '63 – '65, '67, '68), his finest season came in 1966-67 when he registered 12 goals and 28 assists for 40 points to capture the Norris Trophy as the league's top defenseman and was selected to the NHL First All-Star Team. Howell was the last player to win the Norris Trophy before Bobby Orr won the award over the next eight seasons. The former team Captain ('55 – '57) was also honored as Rangers' MVP in 1964, and is one of only four Rangers – along with Andy Bathgate, Rod Gilbert and Mark Messier – to have won the Frank Boucher Trophy three straight seasons ('65 – '67).



Rangers Jersey

The New York Rangers jersey has undergone several alterations throughout the team's history, but the original spirit has endured. Classic and timeless, representing the legacy of a storied franchise. True Broadway Blueshirt.

* For the 1999-00 season, the NHL awarded teams one point for a regulation tie (RT.) Beginning in 2000-01, the NHL amended the rule, awarding teams one point for an overtime loss (OTL.)During the 2005-06 season, the NHL instituted the shootout to follow a scoreless five-minute overtime to eliminate ties. The winning team in the shootout gains two points and a win in the standings, while the losing team receives one point, recorded as an "OT" in the standings.

 From 1999-00 through 2003-04, goaltenders were charged with a loss if their team lost in overtime, even though the team was not credited with a loss. Beginning in 2005-06, goaltenders were no longer charged with a loss if the team lost in overtime or a shootout, instead receiving a mark in the "OT" column. For career records, this statistic is incorporated in the third column, in addition.

Application for season or game credentials must be made by emailing Brendan McIntyre at brendan.mcintyre@msg.com. Requests for single game credentials must be made by e-mail to the Rangers' office a minimum of one day prior to game time. Radio stations, magazines and weekly newspapers will be accommodated on a game-by-game, space-available basis. When applying for the first time, requests from magazines and weekly newspapers, radio and TV stations must be made on company letterhead and must include copies of the publication (if applicable.) Applying for credentials does not guarantee confirmation. When in The Garden, media members must wear their credentials in clear sight at all times. All credentials are non-transferable.

Parking: There is no media parking area at Madison Square Garden. However, there are numerous pay indoor and outdoor parking areas in the immediate vicinity.

Taxi: Taxi service is readily available virtually 24 hours a day at various points around The Garden, especially at the main entrance to Penn Station (7th Avenue bet. 31st and 33rd Streets) and immediately outside the 8 Penn Plaza press entrance (southeast corner of 33rd Street and 8th Avenue, across from the Post Office.)

Please confine all social gatherings, arguments, debates and other such conversations to the dining area on the fifth floor, so that a professional atmosphere can be maintained in the workroom. If you are not a working media member filing on deadline, please show a sense of professionalism and leave the work area for those who are.

Your $8 contribution to the press room will benefit "Garden of Dreams," the 501c3 non-profit charity that works closely with all areas of Madison Square Garden, including the New York Knicks, Rangers, Liberty, MSG Media, MSG Entertainment and Fuse "to make dreams come true for kids facing obstacles". Thank you for your support.

Those holding Rangers season credentials must contact the Rangers PR office to reserve seating. Broadcast locations for the 2013-14 season are also on the South Chase Bridge.

Locker Rooms: Both the Rangers and visitors' locker rooms are located on the fifth floor directly behind the player benches. As per NHL media policy, the locker room will open five minutes after the conclusion of the game. During post-game media sessions all interviews should be limited to game comments. Please act in a professional working manner at all times while in the locker room. Any media members using their credentials for the purpose of obtaining autographs or taking photographs for personal use will have their credentials immediately revoked.

Coaches Post-Game: The postgame availability for Rangers Head Coach Alain Vigneault will be conducted in the lower level of the Press Room (fifth floor.)
